

Foundation supports Cadbury at Lewes

Prudential Gallo-Touch of Italy Foundation was happy to donate $1,500 from its Eating Outing Charity Golf Tournament, which was held at The Peninsula's Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course in May.

"With the influx of retirees to our region, quality retirement communities, such as Cadbury, are appreciated by our local residents and families," noted Bette Gallo, owner of Prudential Gallo, Realtors.

"Cadbury allows their residents to really have it all and enjoy their golden years; we are glad to support the facility," added Bob Ciprietti, co-owner of Touch of Italy Restaurants. Additional proceeds from the golf outing were also donated to The Metropolitan Opera Live Series/ Rehoboth Beach Film Society, Delaware Prostate Cancer Coalition, and Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition.

Cadbury at Lewes, a not-for-profit retirement community, is managed by Cadbury Senior Services, experienced providers of continuing care retirement services starting at its flag-
